Ed:

That's a loaded question. It has crossed my mind but I haven't thought about it too much. I have heard rumblings that Rep. John Adams was on the hunt for large corporate dollars for the April meeting in Cincinnati but I haven't been hunted down yet.

To be honest, ALEC has never received much traction at my company since it has a broader, all-business constituency, and is not specifically targeted to insurance like some other groups, i.e., NCOIL. That being said, the Cincinnati venue might make us more prone to do more given the large number of Ohio legislators expected to attend.

Thanks.

Have you or your company considered a bigger role for the ALEC meeting in Cincinnati on April 29th?

It wasn't forgotten; just stuck on my to do list. I have been on the business travel treadmill for the past few weeks. I should have this processed in a week or so.

Hi Scott:

Hope all is well with you.

We still have not received your check for $1000 for the ALEC event we did in February.

Can you let me know when we should expect to receive?

Let me know if you need anything from us.

Thanks.

Yes, although you have a bit more than me.

And yes, Stautberg did sign up.

Ed,

I called Connie Nolder. She said she sent the check to you back in February. The check was by Ilene Sottile with LKQ. But after looking at my list of people who's checks have been deposited into our account, I don't see it listed.

What do you want to do about that one?

John has phone calls into Bergdoll & Dever on Friday. He'll call them again today.

Subject: Scholarships for ALEC Ohio Mtg in Cincinnati

Rep. Adams:

I want to apologize for not being able to get scholarship funding in place in time for this week's ALEC meeting in Cincinnati. A unique series of developments prevented me from getting the heavy lifting done on this.

1. A change in leadership at my company that was announced this past Monday. We will have a new CEO starting May 2. This has required much of my attention in recent days.
2. A personal situation with my mother-in-law who is in her final days (hospice). I have been busy supporting my wife during these difficult times, which has been exacerbated by the distance between our home (Cincinnati) and my mother-in-law's locale (Napoleon-NW Ohio).

I enjoyed our recent dialogue and hope you will give me another chance to get some much needed funding for ALEC Ohio.

Let's have dinner soon. And have a good ALEC meeting this week in Cincinnati.
